Discover a different Kenya

Forget the beaten path. Kenya offers safari destinations that rival those of the Maasai Mara, but without the crowds. Discover four little-known destinations with abundant wildlife, breathtaking landscapes, and authentic experiences.

CIRCUIT 1: Loisaba & Meru National Park

For travelers seeking a more secluded safari away from the popular routes, Loisaba and Meru offer pristine, wild beauty. These regions are less crowded than the Masai Mara and are ideal for spotting rhinos, elephants, and predators in peace and solitude. From open-air beds to untamed landscapes, this itinerary is designed for those seeking a more exclusive and immersive Kenyan safari experience.

CIRCUIT 2: Samburu, Ol Pejeta & Mt. Kenya

This northern route combines stunning landscapes, rich culture, and rare wildlife. Samburu is renowned for its unique animal species and tribal heritage, while Ol Pejeta offers Big Five viewing with a focus on conservation. With Mount Kenya as a backdrop, this route offers diversity and depth beyond the typical Maasai Mara itinerary.

CIRCUIT 3: Solio, Aberdares, Naivasha–Nakuru & Lake Elementaita

A pleasant alternative to a traditional safari, this route through central Kenya offers a picturesque mix of mountain forests, lakeside landscapes, and private game reserves. Solio is rhino country, Aberdare offers lodges in misty mountainous terrain, and Naivasha and Elementaite offer flamingo-filled lakes, perfect for a relaxing safari and diverse natural landscapes.

CIRCUIT 4: Amboseli, Salt Lick & Tsavo

This southern route is striking in its contrasts: open plains with views of Mount Kilimanjaro in Amboseli, iconic lodges by the waterhole at Salt Lick, and the vast wilderness of Tsavo. A wonderful alternative for travelers seeking variety, fewer tourists, and a harmony of landscapes, wildlife, and iconic views.
