

Discover an Alternate Kenya

Forget the beaten path. Kenya holds safari secrets that rival the Masai Mara, minus the crowds. Explore four off-the-radar circuits packed with wildlife, stunning landscapes, and authentic experiences.

CIRCUIT 1: Loisaba & Meru National Park

For travellers seeking a quieter, off-the-beaten-path safari, Loisaba and Meru offer raw, untamed beauty. These regions are less crowded than the Mara and perfect for spotting rhinos, elephants, and predators in solitude. From star beds to wild terrain, this circuit is ideal for those who want a more exclusive, immersive Kenyan safari.

CIRCUIT 2: Samburu, Ol Pejeta & Mt. Kenya

This northern circuit blends dramatic landscapes with rich culture and rare wildlife. Samburu is known for its unique species and tribal heritage, while Ol Pejeta offers Big Five game viewing with a conservation edge. With Mount Kenya in the backdrop, this route delivers diversity and depth beyond the usual Mara itinerary.

CIRCUIT 3: Solio, Aberdares, Naivasha–Nakuru & Lake Elementaita

For a refreshing change from the traditional safari path, this central Kenya loop offers a scenic mix of highland forests, lakeside stays, and private conservancies. It's rhino country at Solio, misty mountain lodges in Aberdares, and flamingo-filled lakes in Naivasha and Elementaita ideal for relaxed game drives and varied landscapes.

CIRCUIT 4: Amboseli, Salt Lick & Tsavo

This southern route offers striking contrasts, wide-open plains with Mount Kilimanjaro views in Amboseli, iconic waterhole lodges at Salt Lick, and the vast wilderness of Tsavo. It's a strong alternative for travellers wanting diversity, fewer crowds, and a blend of scenery, wildlife, and iconic backdrops.
