

South Africa — Tswalu Kalahari

Where the southern Kalahari meets the greater ecosystem that spans Botswana and Namibia, Tswalu delivers a conservation-first, private safari experience on South Africa's largest privately protected reserve.

Why Tswalu?

Conservation At The Core: A bold, ongoing rewilding vision "to restore the Kalahari to itself," backed by the Tswalu Foundation's research.

Truly Private Safaris: Every booking includes a private vehicle, guide & tracker, set your own pace, linger at rare sightings (aardvark, pangolin, more).

STAY YOUR WAY

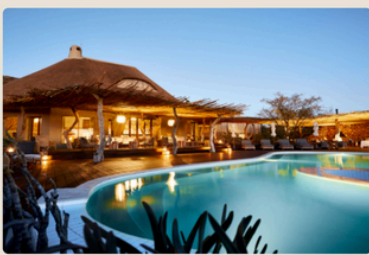

Loapi:

Six ultra-private tented safari homes (1–2 bedrooms), each with a dedicated house manager and private chef; your own vehicle, guide & tracker.

The Motse:

The original camp with nine suites (incl. family suites), waterhole views and generous shared spaces ideal for couples & families.

Tarkuni:

Exclusive-use homestead for up to 10, with dedicated staff and a private vehicle perfect for families or close friends.
