

Zambezi Curated Dining Experiences

When the world's most legendary waterfall sets the backdrop, dinner becomes an event. This week, we spotlight four signature tables, each a different mood, each unmistakably Victoria Falls.

Lookout Café — Where the gorge steals the show

Perched above the Batoka Gorge, Lookout Café delivers widescreen views and effortless, open-air vibes. Think golden-hour sundowners, a gentle breeze, and casual plates that let the setting do the talking.

Best for: Sunset romance, celebration toasts, "first night in town."

Insider tip: Aim for late afternoon seating to watch the light turn liquid gold.

The Boma – Dinner & Drum Show — A feast of flavour and rhythm

Part celebration, part cultural immersion, The Boma brings lively performances, drumming, and a generous spread to match the energy. Come hungry; leave humming the beat.

Best for: Groups, families, and anyone who loves dinner with a show.

Insider tip: Book ahead on weekends; this one fills fast.

Dusty Road Café — Homegrown, heart-led

A colourful, soulful tribute to Zimbabwean hospitality, Dusty Road feels like being welcomed into a friend's backyard, warm, inventive, and rooted in local tradition.

Best for: Daytime exploring, slow lunches, and curious palates.

Insider tip: Ask about seasonal specials; menus often riff on fresh, local produce.

Sunset Cruise — Zambezi River

Sail into Golden Horizons on a Sunset Cruise on the Zambezi River.

Glide along the Zambezi River as the sun dips below the horizon, sipping drinks on a luxurious cruise, the perfect way to end a day in the wild. Serenity, romance, and nature at its finest.

The Perfect Pairing (48-Hour Tasting Plan)

Day 1, Sunset: Lookout Café for sky-high views and sundowners.

Day 2, Lunch: Dusty Road Café for a vibrant, local-flavoured midday pause.

Day 2, Evening: The Boma for a celebratory finale of drums, dance, and a lively feast.

Day 4, Sunset: Sunset Cruise, with the perfect views.
