

Serengeti Lake Magadi - A Rare View of the Serengeti

Some places in Africa feel untouched. Serengeti Lake Magadi is one of them.

Located deep inside the southern Serengeti ecosystem, this lodge sits quietly beside the beautiful Lake Magadi, a seasonal lake that attracts flamingos, wildlife, and one of the most extraordinary natural events on earth, the Great Migration calving season. This is not a crowded safari lodge.

It's a front-row seat to one of Africa's most spectacular landscapes.

Why is this lodge special?

Unmatched Migration Location

Between January and March, thousands of wildebeest gather in the southern Serengeti plains to give birth. Staying here places you right in the middle of this incredible wildlife moment.

Views Over Lake Magadi

The lodge overlooks a peaceful alkaline lake often dotted with flamingos, creating a landscape unlike anywhere else in the Serengeti.

Authentic Safari Experience

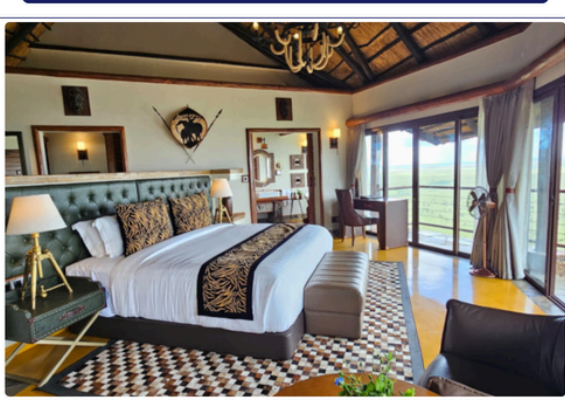

Luxury tented suites blend comfort with nature, offering spacious interiors, private decks, and uninterrupted views of the plains.

Wildlife All Around You

From lions and cheetahs to elephants and vast herds of antelope, this region offers exceptional game viewing throughout the year.

Serengeti Lake Magadi - A Rare View of the Serengeti

Imagine waking up to the sound of distant wildebeest herds moving across the plains. Morning coffee on your deck overlooking the lake. Game drives across golden grasslands where predators roam freely. Evenings around a fire under one of the clearest night skies on earth. This is the Serengeti as it was meant to be experienced.

Quiet. Wild. Unforgettable
